ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

happening

music

In the early 1990s Stephen Bruton gained notice in Bonnie Raitt's band, and since the early 1980s he's won acclaim as the on-and-off lead guitarist with Kris Kristofferson. Now touring with Little Feat, Bruton opens the McDonald Theatre in support of his new release, Spirit World. Expect some sounds that would fit nicely on a Raitt album and others that resound with rhythms of rock and roll. See Tuesday Calendar.

visual art

August and September visitors at Maude Kerns Art Center will enjoy The Word is Art, a showcase of work by Abby Donovan, Susan Hensel, Kitrina Marcroft and Amanda-Leigh Pain, who incorporate words or text into their art. An opening reception is from 6-8 pm Aug. 16. Here's My House by Susan Hensel. Also featured at Maude Kerns is New Works on Paper, paintings by Kerns herself, through Nov. 15. See Friday Calendar.

fair

The Lane County Fair 2002 continues through Aug. 18 at the Lane County Fairgrounds. Musical highlights include America, Travis Tritt, Jamie O'Neal, and Foreigner. This year's fair features exhibits from art to baking, photography and textiles; literary works by Oregon authors; flower exhibits; ice-skating; skateboarding; a carnival; talent show and much more. Tritt plays Friday night. See Thursday, Aug. 15 Calendar.
