

TWIN CITIES
DAILY  PLANET
LOCAL NEWS FOR GLOBAL CITIZENS

05/07/2013 (All day) - 06/24/2013 (All day)

TCDP TOP PICK: From May 7 through June 24 in the window of the Susan Hensel Gallery on Cedar Avenue, see unique collaboratively created portraits of elders from Minneapolis's East African communities. Some are conventional paintings of their faces, some are telling proverbs, and all are unmissable. - Jay Gabler

Paintings & Proverbs features large, color-driven portraits, made from life, including those of elders who have settled in Minneapolis from e. Africa, made with the assistance of interpreters. The sayings and proverbs in several languages, created with assistance of elders and teens in our community, explore the inheritance of cultural wisdom and identity.

This exhibition is at Susan Hensel (window only) Gallery, from May 7 through June 24 ~ 3441 Cedar Ave So, Minneapolis 55407
