Award Winning Art Exhibit in Savage

Savage Juried Art Competition & Show Winners and Exhibition Locations

(Savage MN) Residents of Savage and surrounding communities will see award winning artwork from Minnesota artists when they visit local businesses during the month of May. More than 100 pieces of artwork were submitted into the seventh annual Savage Juried Art Show and Competition. And final round artwork will be exhibited in six locations throughout Savage.

"We are very pleased with the quality of original artwork in this year's competition" said Darrell Tangen, Chair for the Savage Juried Art Show & Competition. "Each year we enjoy works from seasoned artists and discover talented emerging artists."

The Savage Arts Council presents this annual event to bring artwork from around the state to the community. Three art world professionals; Deb Megalssen, Jean Loy-Swanson and Rachel Daly Flentje, judged the artwork and awarded more than $1200 in awards. Savage Mayor Janet Williams presented the awards to the following.

Best in Show: Denise Minkler-Marych, Oil
Three Dimensional first place: Susan Hensel
Pastels & Drawings first place: Ethan Pope
Oil first place: Kristin Grevich
Water Media first place: Ranielle Johnson
Photography first place: Raymond Klempka

The Marion W. Savage People's Choice award will be announced in June after visitors to the exhibits have voted on their favorite piece of artwork. Voting takes place at each of the exhibit locations listed below.
