

Susan and John Hensel

Color of Conflict

Color of Conflict: A collaboration between John Hensel and Susan Hensel.

Color of Conflict is a show of digitally printed photographs and handspun yarn as art. The photos are 26.3" x 40", glossy, mounted on black foamcore board.

John Hensel is an emerging artist working in photography and sequential art. His work can be found at www.johnhensel.net. He lives and works in Ann Arbor, MI and received a BA from Oberlin specializing in photography and video arts.

Susan Hensel is an established multimedia artist with a deep exhibition history spanning more than 40 years. Her work is in collections across the country, including the Museum of Modern Art in New York. She is the owner/director of Susan Hensel Gallery in Minneapolis. www.susanhenselgallery.com.

top of page

to fiction

to poetry

to flash

to irregulars

to interview